

The State of Texas }
 County of Colorado } Declaration
 The undersigned Benjamin Loewenstein, native of the Kingdom of Prussia aged 26 years & a man, arrived in the United States on the 18th day of March 1866, wishing, in due time to enjoy the rights & privileges of a citizen of the United States of America, makes by this application for the same as the law requires

This 22 day of July 1870

The State of Texas } Before me, R. P. Fendick, Clerk County of Colorado } of the District Court of said County personally appeared Benjamin Loewenstein, who, being duly sworn, makes oath that he arrived in the United States of America at the time specified in the above application, & that it is bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States, & that he does renounce all allegiance & fidelity to every foreign Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty whatever & particularly the King of Prussia, whereof he was before a subject.

Benjamin Loewenstein, Sworn to & subscribed before me this 22 day of July A.D. 1870

R. P. Fendick, D. C. C. C.
 The State of Texas } I the undersigned, Clerk of the County of Colorado } District Court of said County here by certify that the above is a true copy from the records of my office, of the Declaration of Benz. Loewenstein to become a citizen Witness, R. P. Fendick, Clerk of said Court